What obligations do I have?

- You must have verified that the customer information about you and your travel companions and about the Holiday Home rental are correctly printed in the policy.
- In case of claim you are to firstly contact the Holiday Home Rental Agency in order to register the claim. The Agency will thereafter convey your claim on to Gouda for further claims handling.
- You are obliged to obtain and then provide all necessary information to Gouda, which are necessary for Gouda's claims handling.

When and how do I pay?

The premium must be paid, not later then, on the date when the cover is set to start and the payment is made in accordance to the payment instructions you receive from the Rental Home Agency,

When does the cover start and stop?

The Cancellation cover starts from the moment when you pay the deposit/rent to the Holiday Home Rental Company and is valid until the period of the rental starts.

The Interruption, 24/7 Emergency Assistance and Home Contents & Liability covers are valid during your rental period.

How do I cancel the insurance?

- In the case that you bought this insurance as included in your rental agreement with Holiday Home Rental Agency, the same cancellation terms that are valid for that agreement applies to this insurance.
- In the case that you have bought this insurance separately from your rental agreement with the Holiday Home Rental Agency and the insurance period is longer than 1 month, you have the right to cancel your purchase of the insurance within 14 days. The 14-day limit starts to count from the day that you have received the policy document/terms & conditions, but earliest from the point in time when you have received a confirmation that the insurance has been signed.
- For example; if you receive the policy/terms & conditions on a Monday the 1st, you have a limit until Monday the 15th. If the limit expires on a bank holiday, a Sunday, a Saturday or the National Day of Denmark (5th of June), you are entitled to wait until the next working day.
- If you wish to cancel your purchase or cancel the insurance, please contact the place where you have bought your insurance.
